

CHICAGO DID NOT LIKE NEW CHARTER

Voted Down at the Special Election Held Yesterday by a Very Large Majority.

MAYOR CHARGES VOTERS WITH RANK INDIFFERENCE

Says that While Charter May Have Some Bad Features, as a Whole It Would Have Benefited the City.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, September 17.—The new charter authorized by the state legislature at its last session for the city of Chicago was rejected by the voters at today's special election by a majority of over 62,000. A little more than half the registered vote was cast. The total vote polled was 181,000, out of a registered vote of 361,969. The light vote was due to some extent to the fact that the election was a special one and the granting of time off for the purpose of voting was optional with employers. In a majority of cases the voters were obliged to go to the polls on going to work or not at all. Mayor Busse issued the following statement tonight:

"It is evident from the result of today's election that a great majority of the people of Chicago either do not want the charter or are not sufficiently interested in the new charter to go to the polls and vote. The very light vote polled clearly proves that. I think the indifference of the public has been a mistake. While the charter contains some provisions that are disagreeable to this, that or the other person, as a whole it would have been beneficial to the city and should have been adopted."

Vote on the Charter
CHICAGO, September 17.—Unofficial returns from 1,258 precincts in the city gave 59,446 for the charter and 122,054 against. The total vote cast was 181,500.

Charter Provisions

CHICAGO, Ill., September 17.—A special election was held here today for the purpose of determining whether the new charter granted the city of Chicago at the last session of the legislature should be adopted. The new charter provides a change in the methods of taxation, concentrating the power of the tax levy for city, park, school and library purposes in the city council. Proposed charter also provides that the city may by referendum vote may issue bonds up to 5 per cent of the total actual valuation of taxable property in the city. There was great opposition to the adoption of the charter, chiefly because of the power of taxing the bodies to levy on property to as high as 7 per cent of the assessed valuation.

JACK THE EXPOSER IS GLOBE'S LATEST

People Living at Long's Bridge Not Struck on Art in the Nude

There have been "Jack the Ripper," "Jack the Kissers," "Jack the Pinchers," and Jack the Whatnot. But now Globe comes along with a—
Jack the Exposer.

For several days past people living in the vicinity of the long bridge have been amazed by a man running about in the presence of women and children in the partial nude. At first it was thought the fellow was intoxicated, but his daily appearance in the same locality and his peculiar actions have dispelled that idea, and now it is the consensus of opinion that the fellow is insane.

Yesterday afternoon the police department was notified and a little investigation of the case resulted in the arrest of a party giving his name as John Makain, on a charge of making an indecent exposure. Makain stoutly protests his innocence. He stated that he acquired something of a jag yesterday and sought the seclusion of the trees and shrubbery near the bridge to sleep off the drink.

"If any person saw me," said Makain, "they were peeping on my privacy."

Judge Thomas wasn't exactly satisfied with the explanation and held Makain in the sum of $100 to answer the charge at 10 o'clock this morning, when an effort will be made to have some of the people living in the vicinity of the bridge identify the man.

Unsettled Condition of the Copper Market Prompts Superintendent to Cut the Force

During the past ten days a score or more of men employed at the Black Warrior mine have been handed discharge checks, and all kinds of rumors have been in circulation regarding this act of the management.

E. M. White, superintendent of the mine, was in the city last night and in an interview with a Silver Belt reporter stated that he was suspending miners on account of the unsettled condition of the copper market. Before the break in copper, about forty-five men were employed at the Black Warrior. The force has been reduced to about twenty-five. Development work is to be pushed right along and when conditions warrant, more men will be employed.

PUSHING SEARCH

An American Collier Is to Be Sent Out to Search for Explorer

By Associated Press.

EDINBURGH, Scotland, September 17.—A telegram from Aagard, Norway, states that the steamer sent in search of William Bruce, the Arctic explorer, failed to find him. Bruce started on an exploring trip along the north coast of Prince Charles with three companions and has not been heard of since.

The steamer Empress, which recently sailed to Spitzbergen with Walter Wellman, the Chicago Record-Herald's Arctic explorer, found traces of one of Bruce's camps at the end of August, but there was no sign of Bruce nor his companions.

Another steamer sent in search of the party has just returned to Aagard from Spitzbergen and reports the situation critical. Preparations are being made at the headquarters of the Bruce expedition at Spitzbergen to send an American collier to Munroe in search of the missing explorers.

BISBEE IS FIGHTING
THIEVES AND FORGERS

The local authorities are making all efforts to detect a particularly sick criminal or gang who is or are guilty of theft and forgery and who got away with the goods as well, says the Bisbee Review.

The thefts occurred in the locker room of the Czar shaft of the Copper Queen mine and consisted of the salary statements of several of the miners, three of which were afterwards presented and paid. The checks thus received were taken to bank and endorsements were forged thereon and payment made.

The thefts occurred Thursday in the locker room before the shift came up and by means of breaking or picking locker locks the slips were obtained, these presented at the company's office went through in the pay day rush. Complaint was promptly made to the county authorities and no effort will be spared to detect the criminal or gang.

PLOT TO BLOW UP
THE SECRET POLICE

Young Girl Had Scheme to Blow Up Secret Police Headquarters and Officers.

SHE WAS WILLING TO SACRIFICE HER LIFE

The Plot Was Betrayed and the Girl Placed Under Arrest—In Fear the Police Move Their Headquarters.

By Associated Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 17.—The police today arrested a young girl nicknamed "Wanda," who is accused of participating in a plot to blow up the headquarters of the secret police, situated on Mouila canal, whose torture chambers aroused bitter feelings on the part of revolutionists. The police claim "Wanda" planned to become a walking bomb. She was to enter the headquarters building in the middle of the day, when it is generally full of police, wearing the uniform of a gendarme officer, lined with wads of gun cotton carrying powerful bombs. "Wanda," the police add, hoped by blowing herself up to reduce the entire building to ruins, kill all the officers comprising the staff of political police. The plot was betrayed and the police in addition to taking "Wanda" into custody, arrested a Jewish tailor in whose shop they seized half of the ready uniform which was intended for a woman. In consequence of the murderous designs of the revolutionists the secret police decided to give up the present quarters, removing to an isolated stone building on Kennedy island, where an elaborate electric system will be installed in order to prevent undermining.

FIRST NATIONAL PAYS OVER MONEY

School Bond Issue Approved and $40,000 Has Been Paid to Treasurer

Work on the Nottsgier hill and East Globe school buildings will be resumed at once, and it is thought the buildings will be completed and ready for occupancy at the opening of the public schools after the holiday vacations.

It will be remembered that on May 29 the taxpayers of this school district voted a bond issue of $40,000, the proceeds of the sale of these securities to be used for the erection of school buildings on Nottsgier hill and in East Globe. The bonds were advertised for sale and on June 7, the bid of the First National Bank of Globe, which was considerably above par, was accepted. The bank refused to turn over the money until the bonds and the steps leading up to their issuance were thoroughly examined, and yesterday Rawlins & Little, attorneys for the First National, approved the bonds and the money has been paid over to the treasurer of the board of school trustees. Work, which was suspended for want of funds about three weeks ago, will now be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Generally bond issues of this size are forced to find a market in the money centers of the east and the fact that a Globe financial institution was able to handle the issue evidences the solidity of our banks and should puff every Globe man up with pride.

SECOND DEFEAT
FOR GLOBE NINE

Monday's First Game Lost to Cananea by a Score of 7 to 1

"Rotten!"

Cananea, 7; Globe, 1. That's the score of the second game in the Cananea-Globe series and rotten is the word Globeites used in describing the playing of the home team.

A second installment of the local excursionists reached the city last night on the belated "Procrustation Flyer." They told of two "awful" games of ball played by the locals and disgustingly remarked that they didn't care to stay to witness the third and last game. They say that Smith "couldn't" pitch on Sunday and "didn't" pitch on Monday, and in the matter of bad form Smith had no edge on the balance of the players.

The home-coming left Cananea Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the hour at which the third game is to be called. They state that the team has abandoned hope of winning a game and is simply playing horse.

On the first two games Cananea sports bet heavily on Globe, but on the last game there was scarcely any betting and the few bets that were made were on the probable number of runs Globe would make. About forty of the excursionists returned last night. The balance will be in this evening.

STANDARD MUST PUT UP $6,000,000

Bond Required to Obtain a Stay of Execution Against the Oil Company's Property.

U. S. ATTORNEYS WANTED
BOND TO EQUAL FINE

Two Bonds Are Required, One Covering the Property in Indiana and Other to Cover Property Elsewhere.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, September 17.—The Standard Oil Company of Indiana in order to obtain a stay of execution against its property to satisfy the fine of $29,240,000, recently imposed by Judge Landis, must furnish bonds to the amount of $6,000,000. This was determined today by Judge Grosscup of the United States circuit court, much to the chagrin of the attorneys for both sides.

The counsel for the oil company contended strenuously for a bond of not more than $1,000,000, while the attorneys for the government demanded that the bond be as high as the fine imposed by Judge Landis. Judge Grosscup ordered that two bonds must be filed, approved by the court, before supersedeas shall issue, one for $4,000,000, covering the property of the company at Whiting, Ind., and the other for $2,000,000, to cover the property of the company elsewhere.

YUMA VALLEY WILL PRO-DUCE HEAVY CROP OF ONIONS

Yuma valley farmers are going in heavily for onions next year, says the Examiner. In order to buy the sets as cheaply as possible they clubbed together and had A. Y. Greer order them. So far they have ordered 3,015 pounds. In planting, two hundred pounds are required to the acre. They will cost approximately $9 a hundred.

The sets ordered are the White Bermuda, a name which is misleading, since the onion is a light brown. It makes a fine early young onion and a good dried onion. The agricultural experiment farm here has planted it for two years with success. They have joined the farmers in the present seed order. An acre or two will be planted in seed onions this year. The sets are ordered from California and Texas.

DOVES OF TENDERLOIN ON ILLEGAL "SKATES"

Celebrate Mexican Independence Day by Getting Drunk, and Are Now in the City Jail

Anna Francisco, a soiled dove of the tenderloin, is certainly out of luck. Monday she donned her very best and started out in a way characteristic of her class to celebrate the anniversary of Mexico's independence. A noisy jag was an early morning necessary, and Anna was compelled to make bond to appear in Justice Rawling's court.

Later in the day her enthusiasm again attained boundless proportions and she was locked in the city cooler on a drunk and disturbance charge. Yesterday was Anna's day of reckoning. In Justice Rawling's court she was assessed a fine of $10 and Judge Thomas let her pass with a seven-dollar assessment. In the absence of coin or friends the Mexican girl will do seventeen days in the city jail. But Anna will have company.

Lapazo Torrez, another maiden who dwells down the line, took on a boisterous skate and will do seven days in the city's 'boose.

The men are now in custody in Los Angeles. The men named are the same for whom a requisition by Governor Folk of Missouri was denied by the governor of California.

The charge in the complaint is conspiracy with Abram Salcido, J. B. Travieso, Gabriel Rubio, T. N. Espinosa, E. Martinez and others to set on foot a military expedition against Mexico, a friendly government, and that the expedition was begun at Douglas about September 1, 1906. SUCCESSFUL RAID
OF A POKER GAME

Six Men, One Hundred and Eleven Dollars and Complete Outfit Bagged Last Night.

GOOD WORK OF MARSHAL
CARICO AND ASSISTANTS

Men Put Up Cash Bonds for Their Appearance in Court Today—Outfit Surprised in a Tent on the East Hill.

Swooping down, as stealthily as a feline animal, on an unexpected sextette of gamblers, Marshal Carico and officers Blevins and Lowthian last night about 10 o'clock bagged six gamblers, $119 in money and an outfit of cards, chips, etc., filling a good-sized gunny sack. The game has been going on in a tent on the East hill, above the laundry, for the past two weeks, and numerous complaints have been made of late to the officers. A raid was planned for last night and it was in every way successful. The three officers stormed the camp from many sides of the tent, and there was no possible show for the participants to get away. They were taken completely by surprise. Money and chips laid in stacks on the table when the officers entered, and the sports were not given a chance to in any way disguise the game or the outfit. The gambling paraphernalia was raked off the table into a sack and the money was carefully laid away in the inside pocket of Marshal Carico. The men were lined up and marched through Broad street to the marshal's office, where they put up a cash bond of $25 each for their appearance in court this afternoon and were allowed to go.

The joint is owned and has been operated for about two weeks past by James McNear, an old-timer, whose only excuse for running the place is that he is old and not able to do any kind of work. McNear, with Henry Rud, G. H. McMahon, George B. Berry, Robert Jones, Harry Allen, S. M. Smith and one Sikey, were pinched in the raid last night. It is quite likely that they will forfeit their bail money and not appear.

It is said that during the past few nights some big games have been played in the tent, in which a number of prominent men have participated. The officers will confiscate the outfit and see that the place is kept permanently closed.

Marshal Carico intimates that there are other places in the city where gambling is going on which will be raided at an opportune time.
